Jeanne Sauvé, a Woman of Firsts

The Story

http://www.cbc.ca/archives/topic/jeanne-sauve-a-woman-of-firsts

---

When describing Jeanne Sauvé, it's hard not to think of the word "first." She was the first woman MP from Quebec to become a cabinet minister, Canada's first female Speaker of the House, and the first female governor general. As she moved from broadcast journalist to high-profile political figure, Sauvé undoubtedly had her share of challenges and controversies. But through it all, the woman of "firsts" never lost her characteristic elegance and grace.